DECEMBER 2015

Opening Hours.

The Gallery will be open on Saturday December 26th from 11 am to 4.30 pm.

From 26th December we will revert to our previous opening hours –

11 am to 4:30 pm. Monday through Saturday. Sadly, it's a financial measure we need to make and we thank all our docents for their help in covering the children's classes at the end of the day.

NEWS FROM OUR FEARLESS LEADERS:

◆ YOUR PRESIDENT: LIZ COVIELLO

Like all of you I feel stunned by the events in and around our town and the revelations which are coming to light. Personally, I've found the media coverage overwhelming. I hope something good come out of this tragedy. As artists I think we find solace in our art. Just remember what our grandmother's used to tell us, don't go to bed angry with loved ones and kiss them good bye in the morning. Wishing everyone happiness this holiday season.

Market Night

It gives me pleasure to tell you all that we are starting to see people who "discovered" the gallery on Market Night, come into the gallery during our regular opening hours! Many thanks to all the artists who have given up Thursday evenings, come to the gallery set up a small table, shown some additional work, made a few sales and chatted to passersby. We would like to continue the gallery open on Market Night (unless it rains!) and if there are other artists who would like to sign up for Market Night please contact the gallery or email me and we will put together a new list, starting in January.

Liz Coviello, RAA President

Thanks... Hospitality

Thanks to the Friends who brought goodies for the Hospitality Table at the recent evening Program with Jeff Owens. We all enjoy standing around, talking with friends while tasting the sweet and/or savory treats presented. Thanks go to: Won Madeline Koh, Athene Johnston, Judith Sparhawk and Tomi Olson.

Adult Programs

Thanks to Lori Powell for organizing the monthly program. She has interesting speakers and sometimes there is an accompanying workshop. The series will resume next year.

If you are unable to drive and would like a ride, please contact the gallery coordinators or myself and we will try and arrange one for you.

It's coming up to the end of the year and I think everyone who volunteers either in the gallery or on committees behind the scenes needs a huge "Thank You" for without your help we wouldn't be here. Wishing you all a Happy New Year and a prosperous and creative 2016.

Multi-Media Mini Show – get ready!

Call to artists for juried show

The Redlands Art Association, sponsors of the 47th Annual MULTI MEDIA MINI SHOW at their Gallery, invites artists of all the visual arts to enter the show. Cash and gift awards will be awarded.

Any artist residing in California or a Friend of the Redlands Art Association may submit up to three recent pieces of work, of their original design. Unique in Southern California, this show accepts work that includes visual arts of any kind: paintings, glass, wood, metal, digital art, fabric/textiles, photography, ceramics etc... hence the Multi Media part of the show. The size is what qualifies artworks for the Mini part of the Show... they must be 14-½" or less including frame or base.

Entry is in person, Sunday, March 6th, 10am-4pm, at the Gallery and Art Center at 215 E State St, downtown, Redlands. Entry forms can be picked up at the Gallery or online at www.redlands-art.org by Jan. 1, 2016. The show is slated for March 11th to April 1st.

The jurist, Daniel Foster, Executive Director of Oceanside Museum of Art (formally Director of The Community Foundation Serving Riverside & San Bernardino Counties) will select the art that will be exhibited.
