

REDLANDS ART ASSOCIATION GALLERY AGREEMENTRevision Effective
1-1-2011

1. I understand the RAA Gallery has the reputation of exhibiting fine art and fine crafts. I agree to show only my original artwork and of my best quality in the Gallery. All such work will be for sale and priced by me. Any reproduction of my original work will be clearly marked as such on the label. All photographs that have been digitally altered or digital art must also be labeled as such. Exception: original artwork by deceased members of the RAA may be shown by an heir who maintains an RAA membership.
2. RAA carries NO INSURANCE on artwork shown in the gallery. Therefore, I accept total responsibility for loss due to, but not limited to, earthquake, fire, water, vandalism or theft.
3. RAA volunteers will handle art works with all reasonable caution. If damage occurs at the Gallery due to carelessness, RAA will reimburse me for the damaged part (i.e. glass, frame, base) or the entire artwork, or in the case of works of glass, ceramic or pottery, upon presentation of a bill from me for the replacement of the damaged part or art work (no more than stated price less 30% commission.)
4. I will deliver and pick up my artwork as per the take-in schedule. If I need to bring my work in prior to or after the take-in day, I will call the Take-In Chair for permission and instructions. I know the gallery does not have storage and any work left for more than 30 days will be deemed abandoned and become the property of RAA to be disposed of as they see fit.
5. I realize that in order to maintain freshness in RAA's exhibits, wall art may not be reentered for two show periods following its first exhibit. Other art work such as table items, matted items, cards, jewelry, fiber art may be rolled over for two subsequent exhibits with payment of hanging fees at each Take-In, including new inventory sheet and items moved to the collection area for the new exhibit.
6. I will properly frame and/or prepare my artwork according to Gallery standards. If not, I will be contacted to correct the artwork before it will be displayed.
7. I understand that the Take-In Committee has sole discretion to reject artwork that is not up to Gallery standards. Also, that the placement of my work is at the sole discretion of the Hanging Committee. I further understand that if my work requires special hanging or display hardware or if my wall hung art weighs more than 15 pounds, the Hanging Committee may determine alternate methods of displaying these pieces.
8. I authorize RAA to sell my artwork at the price designated by me and understand RAA will deduct and retain a commission of 30% of the selling price. If I sell any artwork off-premises because of RAA exposure, I will pay RAA a 20% referral commission.
9. I know the Gallery is run by volunteer efforts. For each show period that I participate in, I am required to choose one of the following options:
 - a. Pay the category fee(s) and sign up for two (2) shifts attending the Gallery. I will schedule the shifts at take-in. The shift times are 9:45 AM to 1:45 PM and 1:15 PM to 5:15 PM, Monday through Saturday. If I require training as a Gallery Attendant, I will ask to co-sit with an experienced trainer at the time I sign up for my shifts.
 - b. Pay the category fee(s) and apply for alternative volunteer work assignment, to be completed within a show period. The Gallery Oversight Manager works in collaboration with the Gallery Attendant Coordinator to develop these alternative volunteer work assignments as well as review and approve alternative volunteer work applications. If no alternative volunteer work opportunities are available at take-in, another option must be chosen.
 - c. If I am unable to sit and do not perform an alternative volunteer work assignment I will pay the category fee(s) and a $30.00 charge for one shift or $60.00 for two shifts payable to the Gallery, not to an individual.
 - d. I understand the Gallery Oversight Manager in collaboration with the Gallery Attendant Coordinator has the power to determine who can receive full or partial exemption from their sitting assignments.
10. The gallery attendant will notify me when my artwork is sold. I understand that I can replace it with a work of similar size at no extra fee during the show period.
11. For customers who inquire about me or my art, the Gallery attendant will call and give me the customer's name and phone number. If I sell any art due to RAA's referral, I will pay a 20% commission to RAA.
12. Wall artists may bring in a single extra piece for the Redlands Wall (beyond the 3 primary allowable pieces) under the following conditions: The image must be depicting a recognizable scene or landmark in Redlands or its environs. Be sensible about the size of the piece being submitted as the Redlands Wall space is not large and must be available to the art of all members. This additional piece will be placed on the wall only after those pieces of artists who have designated their primary pieces as Redlands art. If the Hanging Committee does not have space for all the single extra pieces for the Redlands Wall, I may be called and asked to pick up my Redlands piece.
13. In all, I understand that the RAA Gallery and Art Center is 100% volunteer run and relies on every member to contribute their best to the welfare of the Gallery by honoring this agreement. In return, RAA will do it's best to promote public awareness of the Gallery & Art Center; it's members and all it has to offer.
14. I consent to have me and/or my art in photographs taken at the Redlands Art Association or during RAA activities, to be used in RAA-approved publicity, publications, displays, and/or the website.

Below are the display categories – limits and restrictions. Given the fluctuation of members showing their art and the variety of art shown, it is the Gallery Oversight Manager's right to change these limits and restrictions as he/she sees fit.
