

The Eighth Annual OPEN AIR ART for OPEN SPACE SHOW

"Churches of Redlands"

Show Dates: June 4-21, 2012

Co-sponsored by The Redlands Conservancy, a non-profit group dedicated to the protection and enhancement of the community assets that have historical, architectural and cultural significance for Redlands and the surrounding region, and the Redlands Art Association.

All Plein Air artists are invited to paint on location at the beautiful and historic churches listed below, and to enter the resulting artworks for the Show-Within-A-Show at the Redlands Art Association gallery, 215 East State Street. Take-in for artworks is on Saturday, June 2 from 12-4. Pick-up unsold artworks on Friday, June 22, from 10-5. Maximum size is 20 inches in the longest dimension, including frame, and paintings must be dry, framed and securely wired for hanging. The entry fee is $10 for the first entry and $5 for one additional entry, with a maximum of 2 entries per artist. Art sales will be handled through the Redlands Art Association, with 30% commission shared equally by the RAA and the RC. The reception and awards ceremony will be held in conjunction with Arts Walk at the RAA gallery on Friday, June 15 from 5-7. Penny McElroy will judge the show for cash prizes: $150 for First Place, $100 for Second, $50 for Third as well as Honorable Mention ribbons.
