

An Art Show: "Welcome to Redlands"
March 18 - April 1
Margaret Clark Gallery, Redlands
High School, 840 E. Citrus Ave.

The Margaret Clark Gallery Committee invites local Artists to submit one piece of work that uses a Redlands historical or local theme, . . . artist's choice!

One piece of work, any size,
any media
Redlands theme,
historical or contemporary!

No entry fee, no judging, MCGC reserves the right to exclude un-related work.

Labeling may include price for sale and artist contact information. No sales will be handled by the Committee. Artist information material may not exceed one page of information that will be made available upon request.

Submission dates: March 12-14, 9:00-12:00 noon, at the gallery. Show will be open March 18, 1:00-4:00 and open March 24,25,31, and April 1, 1:00-4:00 and by appointment, anytime. Gallery will be open for other evening RHS events and school hours by appointment. The Gallery will always be attended and supervised by an adult docent and capacity is limited, at all times. Gallery is always locked and secure when not open.

Neither RUSD, RAA nor MCGC may be held liable for loss damage or destruction of work. All work must be picked up by the artist following the closing of the show, April 1 after 4:00 or by appointment.
