THE ARTS ARE THRIVING IN REDLANDS!

◆ FROM YOUR PRESIDENT: KRIS BRUSSARD

Booths for this Sunday's Art-on-State-Street have been sold out for weeks and if the social media buzz is any indication, there should be record-breaking attendance. It's held in conjunction with the Redlands Downtown Artwalk (lots more music, food, and art!) and some of our members will paint live, which is always cool.

Art, for Heaven's Sake! held earlier this month, featured several of our member artists and had its biggest year ever in spite of inclement weather. Whether you collect, create, support, or simply enjoy art, Redlands is the place to be. There are so many wonderful art events and studio tours happening this season!

How do you find out what's going on in the arts? Watch social media. If you don't already, follow RAA on Facebook and Instagram. Check out the local calendars, or just come into the gallery and ask. The gallery and the various shows and tours are great places to buy original gifts for those you love (or for yourself).

Art plays an important role in enhancing the quality of life. Your Art Association is actively working with other local organizations to encourage our city to make cultural arts a priority in the city's future plans. In early December, the Cultural Arts Commission and the Redlands Arts Collaborative will take a resolution request for an Art and Culture Master Plan and a cultural arts economic study to the Redlands City Council for their consideration, approval and funding. This has significant implications for RAA, which has contributed to the economic and cultural well-being of Redlands for over 5 decades. Our president-elect, Kimberli Munkres, has been working on this project for the past several months. Kimberli also represented Redlands—and RAA—at September's Arts Connection Conference in Joshua Tree, which gathered individuals from all disciplines of the arts (visual, performing, and literary) as well as San Bernardino County civic and community leaders to learn how other artists, municipalities, and organizations from across the county have integrated arts and culture initiatives into a sustainable, community-based approach.

Your Art Association works hard to make a positive difference to the quality of life in Redlands. We hope to be doing so for many decades to come.

— Kris Brussard

SPECIAL EVENTS

OCT. 28 ART-ON-STATE-STREET

Put this on your calendar: RAA's Art-on-State Street is teaming up again with the Redlands Downtown ArtWalk on October 28, 2018, from 12 to 5 pm.

40 RAA artists will line State Street in front of the Gallery for this one-day event, offering a wonderful variety of serious art—whimsical art—functional art to wandering visitors. RAA is lucky to have such talented artists.

Over 150 artists total will flood downtown. Community artists will be on State Street and the side streets, as well as in the Orange Alley. Ed Hales Park will have a beer/wine garden with three local breweries and a winery represented. Music and food trucks will be accessible throughout the area. The Pizza Oven will be at our end of State Street again...yum!

Looking ahead, start making plans for the next Art-on-State-Street in March. And if you haven't yet, become a member of RAA to receive advance sign-up privileges and a generous discount on the space fee.

IN THE GALLERY: FREE MONTHLY TUESDAY PROGRAMOctober Scratch Art Program

On Oct 30th 2018 from 7–9 pm the RAA will feature the artist Kathy Paulus who will be speaking about and demonstrating the wonderful world of Scratch Art. Be sure to bring your X-Acto knife for an interactive program. You will be able to carry home your very own "scratch" creation.

Scratch art is an exciting medium whereby the artist uses x-acto type knives to create vivid impressions from an inked board. The highlights are dramatic and fun to do.

Kathy will introduce you to a wide variety of tools and techniques to create different scratches and will describe available resources. Kathy Paulus is a self-taught pastel artist who specializes in realistic animal and still life paintings. She also loves to explore other mediums and her newest adventure is scratch art. She is a member of the International Society of Scratch Board Artists.

NOVEMBER PROGRAM SPEAKERGallery Preparation Program Coming in November

On Tuesday, November 27th from 7–9pm, Aeron Brown, owner of the Threshold Gallery in Redlands will speak on the subject of "How to prepare your art for showing in an art gallery"

FEATURED ARTISTS

All Featured Artist Shows and receptions are held at the gallery, located at 215 East State Street, Redlands.

Featured Artist: Adeola Davies-Aiyeloja

November 3 to 23

Artist Reception: Saturday, November 2, from 2–4 pm

A self-taught artist with no formal training in art, Adeola has a way of bringing colors together to create a visual sensation.

"When you look at my paintings, you feel the joy and happiness the colors convey," Adeola said.

Adeola is very aware of colors and forms and how they work to captivate her audience.

Adeola works in different mediums. Her first love is the oil and acrylic medium. For several years, she developed a love for the printmaking process. Adeola now works with both mediums to create some of her work. In addition to painting, she enjoys working with enamels and metalsmithing to create wearable art. Some of Adeola's paintings have been shown on the set of Fox's television drama

"Time of your Life," NBC's drama, "The Others," ABC's "Greys Anatomy" and "Blackish", most recently CBS's "Welcome to the Neighborhood" and many more.

Adeola newest body of work "Dialogue with Colors" will be showcased at Redlands Art Association November 3 to 23. This series is an abstracted exploration of colors and how it stimulates us without the normal representation but we still find connections to the abstracted form through colors!

Featured Artists: Liz Coviello

November 24 to December 14

Opening Artist Reception, Sat., November 24, 3–5 pm

I love to play and create with textiles—they speak to me!

Yes, I'm one of those women who has to stroke fabrics in shops! If it doesn't feel right I won't buy it! I'm also a sucker for Popular Culture and love the way it's produced in fabric!

But it doesn't stop there... vintage linens and lace are equally irresistible, plus I've explored dying my own fabrics and had fun making whimsical bags from combinations of commercial, hand-dyed and upcycled fabrics.

Who hasn't played with buttons in their grandmother's or mother's button boxes? Clothing needs buttons for fastenings yet when you look at these functional items they have their own appeal and led me into experimenting with them as jewelry. Classic creamy vintage shell buttons to modern laser patterned shell buttons, all become a unique piece of jewelry when adorned with semi-precious stones or fresh water pearls.

Photography has always been an interest and this year I started taking photos of the Umbrellas in the alley and have some ideas for the future.

Joint Featured Artists: Aubrey Sanchez and her daughter, Morgan McCloskey

December 15 to January 4

Artist Reception: Saturday, December 15, from 2–5 pm

Local artists, Aubrey Sanchez and her daughter, Morgan McCloskey will be the featured artists at Redlands Art Association Gallery December 15th through January 4th. Their exhibit titled, "Not far from the tree" will include an opening reception on Saturday, December 15th from 3–5pm at the gallery, 215 E. State St. in downtown Redlands. Included will be originals, prints, cards, jewelry, gift sets, ornaments and children's books. With a variety of sizes, subjects and price points, this is a perfect opportunity to find a unique gift for those on your list.

Aubrey Sanchez, of Yucaipa, is a self-taught artist who has been exhibiting locally since 2012. Much of her work includes mixed media paintings that are vibrant in color, texture and meaning. She is continually experimenting with various mediums like liquid oils and acrylic sand to create a wide array of subject matter. She believes that art should be for the eyes as music is for the ears, leaving you feeling something in your heart. Along with local gallery shows and juried exhibitions, she participates in festivals such as: Yucaipa Music & Arts Festival, Art for Heaven's Sake, Red Dirt Art Festival, Art in the Park & Art on State St.

Morgan McCloskey is an 8th grader at Park View Middle School in Yucaipa. Having been exposed to the art world from a very young age, she discovered a passion for creativity just like her mom. Her favorite style is anime, which she has studied on her own, along with learning the fundamentals and challenges of new mediums through her art classes at school. She has been exhibiting her work in galleries since age 11, as both mother and daughter are active members of Redlands Art Association, Yucaipa Vision Quest and San Bernardino Art Association. At age 12, she was hired to illustrate a children's book, "Pumpkin Meets the Faery Queen" and signed copies will be available for purchase through the gallery. Over the summer, after receiving a gift of a professional grade drawing tablet, she is learning digital art as well. This is particularly exciting, as her ultimate goal is to have a career in video game design. The majority of all sales of Morgan's artwork will go directly to saving for her future art schooling.

GAUGUIN: VOYAGE TO TAHITI / Wed., Oct. 31 at 7 pm, Thurs., Nov. 1st at 2:30 pm

In 1891, Post-impressionist artist, Paul Gauguin, leaves his family in France and sails to the Tahitian islands where he immerses himself in the native lifestyle working for subsistence in the day and painting at night. This film portrays that period of the artist's life which is in great contrast to his European lifestyle and where he finds his muse in the Tahitian people, especially the women. Vincent Cassel portrays this complicated man brilliantly. French with English subtitles.

THE SOWER / Wed., Nov. 14 at 7 pm, Thurs., Nov. 15 at 2:30 pm

In 1852, Napoleon Bonaparte ravaged the villages in Northern France by killing and imprisoning the men who fought against him to retain their Republic. In one such village, after many years without men, the lonely younger women made a pact that the first man to appear would be shared by all. When a stranger arrives, Violette (Pauline Burlet) is the first to meet him and they become romantically involved. Will she honor the pact? What follows is a beautiful, sensitive film. Not rated but intended for mature audiences. French with English subtitles.

Opportunity: Holiday Art Mart

December 1, 2019 at the Desert Art Center!

The Holiday Art Mart (AKA the Boho Bazaar) is a curated marketplace that offers a selling opportunity for great local artisans of fine arts, crafts and handmade pieces. The Holiday Art Mart invites top artists from the Desert Art Center and the local areas around the Valley to participate in a traditional-style holiday bazaar, making special items available for sale to the public without the DAC commission. Art work does not have to be holiday-themed.

To be part of this event, contact Darleen Wilkerson at darster@cybermesa.com.

WHEN: The event is Saturday December 1, 2018 from 10:00 to 4:00 PM (set up starts at 7:00 AM). Artisan table spaces will be in the front of the DAC facing Palm Canyon Dr. as well as around the building to include the areas facing Indian Canyon Dr. Upon arrival the morning of the event, spaces will be assigned in the Small Gallery. Artisans are expected to be set up and ready to sell by 10:00 AM and to pack up starting no earlier than 4:00 PM.

WHERE: Desert Art Center, 550 North Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs, CA, 92262. Artist spaces will be located in the front and back of the DAC building.

SPACES: Twenty-one marked spaces will be available under the eaves: they are 10 feet long and 3 feet deep. Vendors with pop-up tents can be located on the lawn. No electricity is provided and artisans are expected to bring their own set-ups for the event. Limited spaces for 10 x 10 tents will be available upon request: Please note on the bottom of your application your interest.

MEMBER & LOCAL NEWS

Muralist Competition for new Coffee Shop in Downtown Redlands

Imagine, hundreds of people walking by a large and vibrant mural that YOU painted. Taking picture in front of it with their friends, sharing it on social media, having coffee, discussing and studying it. They feel the emotions you intended to present to them through your art. Well imagine no longer, because the opportunity for this to be your reality is here.

We are a new coffee shop opening in Downtown Redlands in the middle of October, we are named Back Alley Coffee Bar. And we are holding submissions for local Redlands Artists who would like the opportunity to have their work presented on our wall. The wall in which the art will be presented is the main feature of our shop, so hundreds of people will be seeing your work every single day.

If you are interested in such an opportunity, please submit some sample work as well as your information to the email Backalleyredlands@gmail.com. Your sample work does not have to be a big piece, but rather anything you think will show us your ability to express yourself through your art. We are giving complete freedom of how and what the piece will be to the artist, all we ask is nothing to vulgar and we will supply the subject of the piece to you before you start. Other than that, you have total freedom to express yourself. I look forward to your submissions and helping promote the local Redlands Art Community.
