CONNECT & SHARE. YOU MATTER.

◆ FROM YOUR PRESIDENT: KRIS BRUSSARD

A new year often brings new challenges. For some, it's about forging stronger connections. For others, it's about finding or sharing inspiration and encouragement. And for most of us, it's about cultivating a life of creativity and meaning.

As a member of RAA, you matter. You matter to us. And you can make a difference. We are one of the most vibrant and dedicated communities of artists you will find. That's because our members participate! We invite you to become more active in the life of your artistic community.

From taking classes to teaching them, from volunteering at shows, take-ins and events, RAA offers many opportunities to connect and create.

Here are a few of the places where you can use your skills and talents at RAA:

Volunteer at an Event. If you're not showing at an event, perhaps you would be willing to work an information or payment booth. We have several events coming up including the Attic Art Sale, Art on State Street, and Art in the Park.

Volunteer at take-ins. Every few weeks we take-in art for a new show. This is a wonderful way to put faces to names, and scope out the new work coming in. We need volunteers to assess and organize incoming artwork, help artists fill out their paperwork and make sure their memberships are current, and remove artwork from the prior show.

Docent. This could include anything from greeting customers to tidying to distributing flyers and postcards. You may be asked to wrap purchases, update information, merchandise displays or compile children's art cards.

Teach. Our members are lifelong learners. Propose and teach a class for kids or adults. It's a great way to generate some extra income and share your expertise.

Join a Committee. RAA has several committees that need your expertise, talent and support. If you have a business background, you might help out on the Personnel, Finance/Investment, Marketing or Development Committees. If you like events, there's the special event, the exhibition and the monthly program committees. If art education is your thing, we have an Education committee and the Margaret Clark Art Education Enrichment Fund (MCAEEF) Committee, which makes grants to schools.

To get involved, call us at (909) 792-8435 or contact us through <https://redlands-art.org/contact/>

So, please, join in. We would love to get to know you.

January Program Speaker: Aaron Brown

The January 22nd Program will be presented by Aaron Brown, owner of the Threshold Gallery in Redlands. Aaron will talk about being a creative entrepreneur, and his own journey as an artist and owner of the Threshold Gallery on Vine St. He will also discuss how to present your work in gallery spaces and what galleries are looking for. He would welcome questions and answers related to his program and presenting art in a gallery.

The program is from 7–9 pm on Tuesday, January 22nd, admission is free and all are welcome to attend.

February Program: The GOLDEN "A to Z" of Acrylics

The public is welcome to attend RAA's Program on Tuesday, February 26 at 7 pm at the Gallery, 215 E. State St, downtown, Redlands.

This lecture packs in a ton of valuable information about acrylics, guiding listeners through the basics while opening up new possibilities. Kathryn Duncan will give us information about minerals and modern pigments and how this relates to clean color mixing, glazing and the creation of fabulous new colors. Learn the unique properties of Fluids, Heavy Body, Open and High Flow Acrylics. Discover Interference and Iridescent paints for unusual effects. Get a comprehensive overview on the many gels and mediums and how they can change texture, saturation and intensity of color for sculptural effects and more. The lecture includes a review of Grounds that create truly contemporary surfaces for painting, drawing, pastel, digital printing and mixed media, as well as an array of examples of these materials put to use. Attendees leave the lecture enthusiastic to explore the extensive potential of acrylic painting! The lecture also includes a brief introduction to non-acrylic products, Williamsburg Handmade Oil Colors and QoR Watercolor.

Kathryn Elliot Duncan, has been involved with art materials for more than 20 years. To Kathryn, the most thrilling part of working with materials is drawing on this knowledge to "solve" artists' dilemmas when trying to create a specific effect.

In 2011 she started Art Workout, a company devoted to art education and inspiration for artists of all ages and experience levels.

In the Golden Working Artist Program, Kathryn has spent years developing an array of acrylic techniques to keep pace with the amazing body of information and product depth available at Golden.

There is no charge to attend RAA's Program on Tuesday, February 26 at 7 pm at the Gallery, 215 E. State St, downtown, Redlands.

Reminder: Take Down ONLY on Friday February 15th from 9 am–6 pm

In preparation for the 50th Annual MMMS, please, please either come in Friday, February 15th and collect your art or make arrangements with the Gallery Coordinators to collect it the previous week.

We have NO storage other than leaky sheds!

50th Annual MMM Show - Feb 17

Get back to your studio and make us some art for the 50th Annual Multi Media Mini Show, Redlands Art Association's juried art show. Remember,

1) The Multi Media part of the show: artists may submit photography, digital (computer) work, fiber art, drawings, glass, sculptures in wood, stone, and metal, as well as the traditional fine arts-oils, watercolor, acrylic, pastels, etc.

2) The Mini part: the size limit is a maximum of 14½" on any side including frame and base (that is, it must fit in a 14½" cube).

Any artist residing in California or a member of the Redlands Art Association may submit up to three recent original pieces of work. The entry fee for members is $30 for up to 2 pieces or $45 for 3. The non-member fee is $45 for 2 pieces or $60 for 3. No membership necessary. All work must be for sale. Winners of the competition will share in over $2000 in cash and product awards.

Entry is in person, Sunday, Feb. 17, 2019, 10am–4pm, at the RAA Sales Gallery & Art Center, 215 E. State St, downtown, Redlands. Out-of-towners may mail in or bring in their art early. See instructions on the prospectus. The show will be on display at the Gallery through March 15.

Naturally, its success has spawned similar shows, however, the MMM Show is still the only one of this scale in Southern California. The prospectus will be available at the RAA website, www.redlands-art.org (click on Join RAA tab, then Forms for Members tab) or copy the address: <https://redlands-art.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/01/2019-MMM-Prospectus-with-Insurance-form.pdf>, and paste it into your web browser.

Meet MMM Show Juror, Joseph Stoddard

Joseph Stoddard is a partner at SKA Design (an environmental graphics design office) located in South Pasadena. He lives in Pasadena, painting in the evenings and on weekends.

He has produced paintings for a number of Pasadena events, including the Bungalow Heaven Annual Tour, the Colorado Street Bridge Party, the Pasadena Showcase House of Design, the California Art Club Artists for Architecture Painting Project, the Pasadena Symphony and the Pasadena Pops Orchestra. His work was recently featured in the latest issue of The Art of Watercolor, a French art magazine, as well as Studios magazine, and Watercolor Artist magazine. His studio was featured in The Man Cave Book.

A collection of sketches of the University of Redlands entitled Redlands Sketchbook was published in 2007. In 2001 a book of his sketches entitled Pasadena Sketchbook was published. The second edition was published in October of 2008.

In 2012, Azusa Pacific University purchased a series of 10 original sketchbooks for their permanent collection, and a print of his painting of Maranatha High School was given to Laura Bush by the school. In 2013, he was invited to submit art for the Bright Side of the City art event Jyvaskyla, Finland. His painting of the Pasadena Train Station is in the permanent collection of the Pasadena Museum of History. He developed the theme paintings for the Pasadena Showcase House of Design for both 2012 and 2014. He is currently working on a sketchbook about Los Angeles.

"What an honor! Thank you for the invitation!", Stoddard replied when asked to jury RAA's 50th Multi Media Mini Show.

Featured Artist: Patricia Rose Ford

January 26 to February 15

Opening Artist Reception, Sat., February 2, 2-4 pm

As a landscape painter, I love the great outdoors, particularly the scenes of the southwestern deserts and coastlines. Mostly, I paint Plein Air with pastels, as I enjoy being in nature, looking at a beautiful scene, and translating the emotions of what I see onto the paper. My hope is that I am able to convey in my art, the feelings of joy and tranquility that I experience when painting.

Since childhood, drawing, coloring and painting have always been my passion. While Social Work was my major in college, painting continued to be my first love and I completed a minor in Fine Art. Although my career as a social worker was fulfilling, I always wanted to have more time to paint. In 2003, I retired from social work and began to apply my love for art, now as a full-time artist.

My work has been exhibited in local and national juried shows throughout the United States. I have also been honored with a number of awards and recognitions at these venues. For me, an even greater reward has been enjoying the camaraderie of fellow artists, studying with plein air masters, and the experience of meeting and getting to know the individuals who appreciate and collect my art.

MEMBER & LOCAL NEWS

Attic Art Sale Coming in March

Check the attic, the closet and the garage for gently-used wall art pieces and donate them to the Attic Art Sale to help raise badly needed funds for art education in Redlands.

Art in the Attic is a new event sponsored by the Redlands Festival of Arts (RFA) and the Redlands Art Association (RAA). It is a two-day art event with over 300 pieces of art which, might typically be purchased in a gallery, but at bargain prices that could yield some lost treasures.

According to Harry, people often call the RAA and the RFA to ask what they can do with inherited artwork or pieces that they've purchased and no longer want. Unfortunately, it's harder to sell art on the secondary market than one might think. Your artwork may be worth more as a potential tax deduction than through a traditional sale by the time promotional costs and commissions are accounted for.

This event offers art lovers an opportunity to donate their artwork to a local charitable organization for a potential tax deduction. Art donors will fill out a donation form listing the artwork and its value but will need to consult a tax professional to comply with IRS rules. "All donors should understand their artwork will be sold to buyers at attractive prices. The goal of this event is to create a fun-filled market day where one can purchase art for their personal enjoyment and home decor," Harry said.

The sale opens Friday, March 1, with a $25 per person cocktail party preview sale, 5:30 to 7:30 pm, at The Museum of Redlands (MOR) followed by the collection's free opening to the public on Saturday, March 2, 8 am to 3 pm. Donations of art may be dropped off at MOR on Thursday, February 28th or at Lois Lauer Century 21 Realty's office, 1998 Orange St. in Redlands until February 27th. Art donors with questions should call Shirley Harry: 909-214-7179 or email her: shirleyharry978@gmail.com. For general info or to purchase preview sale tickets, call the RAA at (909) 792-8435.

Local Artist Contributes Mural to downtown Redlands

The next time you're downtown, stop by the alleyway at Back Alley Coffee Bar at 113 N. 5th St., Redlands. Many new murals, painted by local artists, adorn the alleyway next to our community's newest coffee shop.

Local artist, Cherie Burris, felt drawn to this unique expression of art and responded to owner, David Freselli's call to artists. She exclaims, "the experience was totally exhilarating and fun." Wanting to make a contribution to the beautiful community where she raised her children and has lived for the past 33 years, Cherie's mural showcases the Redlands mountains, sunshine, and oranges along with a couple of playful cats.

While painting the mural over the Thanksgiving holiday, she and other muralists met many kind folks strolling the alley while the artists painted. Back Alley's manager, Zack, also offered positive appraisals and hot chocolate breaks.

Cherie participates in local art festivals and shows and displays her art at RAA, Vision Quest and Brandon Gallery. One of her newest ventures is on instagram at cherieburriswatercolors where she shares her paintings and poetry.

MEMBER & LOCAL NEWSMemorial for Gail Brownfield, Sunday, January 20, 2–4pm

It is with tremendous regret I must tell you that RAA lost one of its friends. Gail Brownfield passed suddenly of a heart attack last month.

For more than three decades, Gail was a strong leader who exemplified the values and ideals of our community of artists and art lovers. Her heart was open to everyone and gave much of her time and considerable talents to RAA. She served as President of the Operating Committee, on the Board of Directors and once her board term was up, continued on the Featured Artist Committee and the Personnel and Finance Committees. For years, several of us met at her house to bead and craft. She was dear to those who had the privilege of working with and loving her. Our loss is beyond words.

We will hold a memorial service at the RAA Gallery on Sunday, January 20, 2 – 4 pm. Everyone is welcome to pay their respects. If you have any questions do not hesitate to call the gallery (909) 792 8435.
